OntarioMonitor.ca is a subscription service providing a simple and effective way to monitor activities at the Ontario Legislature. These year-end statistics have been supplied for consideration by columnists and editors preparing year end wrap-ups of activities at Queen's Park.

OntarioMonitor.ca is used by trade associations, unions, NGO's, First Nation Groups and the private sector to monitor Question Period activity, the status of Bills and Debates and the passage of regulations. One of the most commonly used features is where you insert keywords and OntarioMonitor.ca sends them directly to your smartphone or other device when they are mentioned in Legislative proceedings (Hansard and committees).

OntarioMonitor.ca and the Alberta version, AlbertaMonitor.ca were created by Addison Cameron-Huff a Toronto-based tech lawyer and Environmental Communication Options.

Both Ontario Monitor and Alberta Monitor offer two week free trials.
