

MEDIA ADVISORY

For Release: IMMEDIATELY

Location: Toronto, Ontario

Adaptability Canada to launch Age at Home solutions at Zoomer Show

What:

Adaptability Canada, a leading commercial accessibility company, focused on serving large, complex public, private and non-profit organizations in Ontario and across Canada will be launching its Age at Home solutions at the annual Zoomer Show in Toronto this month.

Through Age at Home, homeowners and family caregivers will have a one-stop shop for renovating or making accessibility-related upgrades to their home. Services include including financial support, consulting, home mobility equipment and full service renovations. At a time when seniors and family caregivers are forced to seek help through multiple sources, Age at Home gives consumers a new, more reliable source – one with deep renovation knowledge that only utilizes licensed, professional tradespeople.

Adaptability Canada representatives will be on site during the show to assist visitors with their home accessibility renovation related questions and to showcase some of the quality products to help seniors and people with disabilities live safe and comfortable in their homes.

When:

Saturday October 31, 2015 from 10 am to 5 pm

Sunday November 1, 2015 from 11 am to 5 pm

Where:

Enercare Centre (formerly Direct Energy Centre)
100 Princes' Boulevard, Exhibition Place M6K 3C3

Interview Opportunity:

- Jeff Wilson, CEO, Age at Home Canada, a division of Adaptability Canada

About The Zoomer Show
